

Medicare basic required documentation for a face-to face visit and an order is written

This is the basic information that must be in the medical record from a face-to-face visit for any orthotic order to satisfy Medicare requirements.

- Diagnosis
- What is being ordered
- Why the item was ordered
- How the item will aid the patient functionally